ALL SUMMONS JURY TO HEAR GRAFT CASES

District Attorney Arthur D. Hill today called a special session of the Grand Jury for the express purpose of investigating city graft. He purposes to try before the Grand Jury every case in which a public official is charged with the administration of the late John B. Stoddard.

The Grand Jury will meet tomorrow in addition to the cases in which trials were held during Monday's session. District Attorney Hill will place the graft cases before the Grand Jury.

The calling of a special session of the Grand Jury is striking evidence to the public of the graft cases in which trials were held during Monday's session.

They all knew that District Attorney Hill is taking no chances and that he is seeking redress in all of these cases, that there be no legal limit to prosecution.

Ever since he was sworn into office the district attorney has been working night and day. Probably never before has he so minutely kept his eye on the graft cases in the history of the district attorney's office.

New indictments have already been returned against former Aldermen George H. Harris, Christopher Lee P. McCallum, and another James T. Cassidy, McCallum's lawyer.

Among the cases which the special session are those of Contractor Thomas P. Walsh, J. Mitchell, former Alderman William Brewster, his brother James H. Brewster, Oliver George, Harry A. French, George, former Alderman of Boston, and several others.

SHE HORSEWHIPS MOORE'S LAWYER

WOMAN WHO IS SUING RICH LEATHER MERCHANT ATTACKS SWEETSER IN STREET.

This photograph will be introduced at the trial of Miss McCallan against the leather merchant for breach of promise. It shows them together in the Maine woods.

Miss Jessie B. McCallan gave Attorney George A. Sweetser a sound thrashing on the face today as the lawyer stepped from his office, No. 60 State street, with former Assistant Attorney General Nash.

The woman had been waiting for Mr. Sweetser and as soon as he appeared she stepped from a doorway, drew a dose whip from her broadtail muff, and struck the lawyer a cutting blow right on the face.

Before he could dodge or protect himself in the slightest degree the pretty brunette slanted the lower time and again.

Each one of the whip raised his head and wrote on Attorney Sweetser's face. A crowd soon gathered and the woman continued to strike the lawyer with the whip.

Miss McCallan accused him of being one of the "leather merchants" who had seduced her. "I have not decided, or if I have decided I have not determined to make any decision public."

KUBIAK HERE; LOOKS FIT FOR HARD BATTLE

Looking like a well trained athlete, Al Kubiak, the Middlesex heavyweight, today fought a hard battle with the champion, John P. McCallum, in the main event of the night.

It was a wonderful fight. A few years ago in the ring with him a lot of men were known as champions.

NEW WORLD MARK SET BY BOSTON MEN

THIRTY-SEVENTH HOUR SCORE.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The grueling pace maintained by the Boston team in the first twenty-four hours of the great international gun-pole shot race at Madison Square Garden, in which they set a new record for the time, told on them during the early hours today, and they lost the lead they had kept up so long.

Thompson and Prosser covered 105 miles a day against 164 miles 8 days made by the French team, which was the former record. Available of the New England team, and those of the Belgians dropped out this morning and their partners, teamed up and continued in the contest.

Ever since the beginning of the long race the French team, composed of G. O. and Orville, have been back in third place, and this morning, when the Boston team encountered in the French team, they were in the lead.

The Frenchmen continued to increase their lead, and the Boston team, which had been in the lead, was now in third place.

Hoar and his penny hallet gave the Columbia one of the best shows of the season last night. To-morrow night there will be a performance by the famous "Burr and Young Sandow" immediately following the regular performance. The night to-morrow will be the Columbia "hook."

Howard.

The Cherry Blossom Girls bloomed in the Howard yesterday, putting on a turn of burletta, with any quantity of song, dances and jokes sandwiched into the act. The burletta was "The Girl Who Went Waterweight," figured in a rattling sketch "The Souk-Souk," with Jack Shook, Billy Gardner, Henry Myers and Joe Ellis. A good olio rounded out the bill.

Palace.

Fred Irving's Majesties, the classic and burlesque organization, the classic "The Wheel," gave a live and entertaining burlesque show at the Palace Theatre yesterday. They put on a burlesque of "The Merry Widow" with jokes and specialties worked into the act.

Austin & Stone.
Professor Wormwood's Dog, Monkey and Bear Circus delighted patrons at Austin & Stone's Museum yesterday. The monkey act of playing "Home, Sweet Home" on musical bells was a feature hit. Another big act at the museum this week is the act of Princess Calce and company in the Egyptian dances.

Gaiety.
Ben Jansen, the great Hebrew character impersonator, heads the cast of the Bowery Burlesques, which came to the Gaiety yesterday. The Bowery troupe put a "Too Much Isaacs" for its feature skete.

Scenic Temple.
At the big Scenic Temple the movie picture, illustrated song and olio program this week is unusually good. There w

The Star Theatre put on a new bill of moving pictures, vaudeville specialists and song sheet features yesterday. The program will be changed for the last end of the week.

JEFFRIES SAYS
NELSON IS A GREAT FIGHTER

JIM JEFFRIES FAVORS
NATIONAL BOARD TO CONTROL BOXING GAME

James J. Jeffries in his article today reviews the fightlight situation. He strongly indorses the proposed plan to establish a national scientific and educational board to control boxing.

By James J. Jeffries.
By permission of William Morris, Inc.
I HAVE frequently been asked what my opinion was of the world's greatest fightlight. And I answer: I like it. I like it because it is the only sport in which a man can be killed. I like it because it is the only sport in which a man can be hurt. I like it because it is the only sport in which a man can be beaten. I like it because it is the only sport in which a man can be killed.

Controlling Body Is Badly Needed.
The badly needed national board to control boxing is the only way to protect the public. It is the only way to protect the fighters. It is the only way to protect the game.

Pack's Has Speed, But Lacks Punch.
Pack's has speed, but he lacks punch. He is a fast fighter, but he is not a powerful fighter. He is a fast fighter, but he is not a powerful fighter.

Even in a short fight—six or ten rounds—I don't believe that there is one of them who could stay with him, and Nelson is a fighter who is a poor fighter.

It is true that he is clever and has a word of speed. What he lacks is a punch, and without that no fighter can hope for success.

"Pack" is sure to grow and grow fast. I understand now that he cannot make the lightweight limit, and he would have very little chance with a real fighter above that class.

Since coming to New York I have heard a great deal about the mere made by the Boston newspaper to improve the game and I believe want to put myself on record as heartily in favor of the proposed improvement.

Too Much Crooked Work.
Under the present system a fighter can be as crooked as he pleases, or his backers want him to be. If he is found out, as he is all right. If he is found out, as he is all right.
